Kirby Air Ride

okay!

Halo there!

My name is Paola Molina. This blog contains my personal game reviews and discussion of the trending games! Hop on over to My Treasure Box to see games that are worth checking out (no worries, there will be no major spoilers). For discussion about the latest games, you can check out my discussion blogs where I post my opinion about something and you can express yours! Games are a fun thing to share with friends around you, so while our opinions may differ at least we will always have something in common: we love games!
